

Construction Management Services

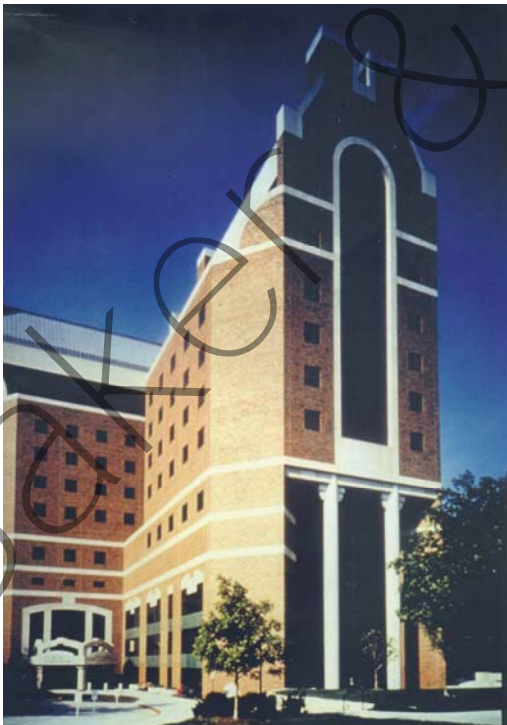

Melanie Bunstine, Director of Construction Services for Baker & Associates Architects since 1996, has a long and distinguished career in construction administration.

While the Sherman R. Smoot Company she was involved in the Construction Management of projects ranging in cost from $34-$120 million dollars including; The Ohio Statehouse Restoration, AmeriFlora, Riffe Center for Government and the Arts, James Cancer Hospital and Research Institute, and the Columbus Metropolitan Library.

Since joining Baker & Associates in 1996 she has been instrumental in the continued advancement of our construction administration.

Riffe Center for Government and the Arts

James Cancer Hospital and Research Institute

*Work performed at previous firm.

The Ohio Statehouse Restoration Project